

Local Briefs

RETURN TO CITY—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thompson and children have returned to Phoenix after a vacation spent on the coast.

HOME FROM COAST—Mrs. Albert Rosenberg returned yesterday from Los Angeles, where she spent the summer months.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY—Manuel Valenzuela yesterday pleaded not guilty in the superior court before Judge Stanford to a charge of committing a statutory offense and will be tried on the charge on Oct. 15.

RETURN FROM BEACH—Mrs. Joseph T. Selzer and her small sons, Joseph, Jr., Lewis and Charles Albert, returned Saturday from Santa Monica, where they spent the summer months.

CHURCH OF CHRIST—Song service at the Church of Christ will begin at 10:30 o'clock this morning, followed by Bible class recitations and the communion service. The regular Sunday evening song practice starts at 8 o'clock.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Daykin have returned from a three months trip in California, during which they visited many points of interest. They report meeting many Phoenix people at coast points.

TRINITY COMMUNION SERVICES—Communion services will be held at Trinity Pro-Cathedral at 8 o'clock this morning. All services at the cathedral will be resumed today, following the return from the east of Dean William Scarlett.

RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP—James Creighton, well known Phoenix architect, has returned from a tour of the east which included a visit to Chatham, New Jersey, where he attended a reunion of his family. Later he went to New York to visit a brother, with whom he made a motor trip through New England.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH—Regular services at the First Methodist church will be as follows: Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning worship, 11 a. m.; Epworth league, 6:30 p. m., and evening worship, 7:30 p. m. The regular monthly meeting of the official board will be held tomorrow and the fourth quarterly conference Wednesday.

CALLED TO PRESCOTT—Miss Ruth Merwin, clerk in the justice court of Justice Charles De Sales Wheeler, was called to Prescott yesterday on account of the death of her father, Mr. Merwin, who was a mining man, was past 80 years of age and has been confined to his bed for several weeks.

WILL TEACH MUSIC—William Orth will again be connected this year with the Arizona school of music as one of the assistant piano teachers, according to an announcement made yesterday. Mr. Orth is a pupil of Edwin Hughes of New York. For three seasons he has spent the summer in teaching piano in South Dakota and in concert work in the middle western states.

HELD FOR HEARING—Leopoldo Gonzales yesterday was arraigned before Justice Charles De Sales Wheeler on a charge of grand larceny and was committed to the county jail when he failed to furnish a bond of $1000. He will be examined on the charge at 10 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 18. Gonzales is charged with bolting with a bolt of silk from the Korrick store recently. He was caught after a chase of several blocks by Jim Simpson and R. B. Baker.

MARRIAGE LICENSES—Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Eugene Purio, 25, and Lillian C. Kelley, 16, both of Phoenix; Christian A. Anderson, 28, of Chandler, and Margaret E. Owen, 28, of Denver; Max Bromberg, 25, and Ray, 25, both of Phoenix; John T. Coleman, 31, and Ann Jones, 50, both of Mesa; Davis Cloud, 23, of Phoenix, and Gladys Marie Terrell, 18, of Glendale; and Enrique Gonzales, 25, and Amelia Vezzer, 22, both of Tempe.

PIANIST RETURNING—Franz Darvas, pianist and teacher, will return to Phoenix on September 18 after spending the summer on the Pacific coast. He will open his classes at the Arizona School of Music on Monday, September 20. Mr. Darvas has been with the school of music since the fall of 1915, and spent one year in France and Germany in the service of his country.

ARRESTED IN EL CENTRO—Wanted in Phoenix on a charge of grand larceny, Ed McMullen yesterday was arrested in El Centro, Cal., and is being held in the county jail there. He will be brought back to Phoenix by Deputy Sheriff Gilbert Blanco, who left for El Centro last night. McMullen is charged by E. G. Glenn with taking and driving away a Stearns-Knight automobile from Second avenue and Van Buren street on September 3. The car is valued at $1,500, according to the complaint.

IN STAGE LINE CASE—The members of the state corporation commission were cited yesterday for contempt by the superior court of Yavapai county as the latest step in the tangle of which the Jerome Union stage line is the center. Some time ago the corporation commission, despite a restraining order from the superior court in Yavapai county, fined the stage company $200 for contempt, and it is because of this fine that the citation yesterday was issued.

THREE GET DIVORCES—To most of the habitués of the court house Saturday of each week, has become known as divorce day, and although yesterday was the first Saturday of the new court term, it proved no exception to the rule. Judge Stanford opened the season by granting three decrees of divorce as follows: Annie Ruston from William T. Ruston, granted the custody of their four children and $40 a month for their support. Mable Bolt from Richard G. Bolt, given the custody of their child and $200 a year for its support. Margaret V. Ulrich from John J. Ulrich, granted an alimony of $75 a month.

DR. AND MRS. PALMER RETURNING—Dr. and Mrs. E. Payne Palmer will return to Phoenix tomorrow morning, after spending their summer vacation in the east. In Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Palmer, a former Dayton resident and widely known as a singer, gave a concert which was highly commented upon by Dayton papers. Mrs. Palmer studied music in Berlin and London, and is a sister-in-law of Mrs. F. D. Lane, also widely known in American musical circles.

RECEIVES WORD OF DEATH—Miss Mary Robertson Moore, 324 North Thirteenth avenue, has received word of the death of her uncle, Richard Edwin Stofer, in Norwich, N. Y., last Friday. Mr. Stofer was president of the Norwich Pharmacy company, with large factories there, and was well known in the east as a business man and philanthropist. Mr. Stofer had planned to visit Miss Moore here this fall, and both were then going to the coast for the winter.

FREED FROM LIABILITY—Upon payment of $146.25 yesterday in the superior court, Judge Lyman issued an order releasing William B. Johnson from any further liability on the contempt of court proceedings. On Sept.

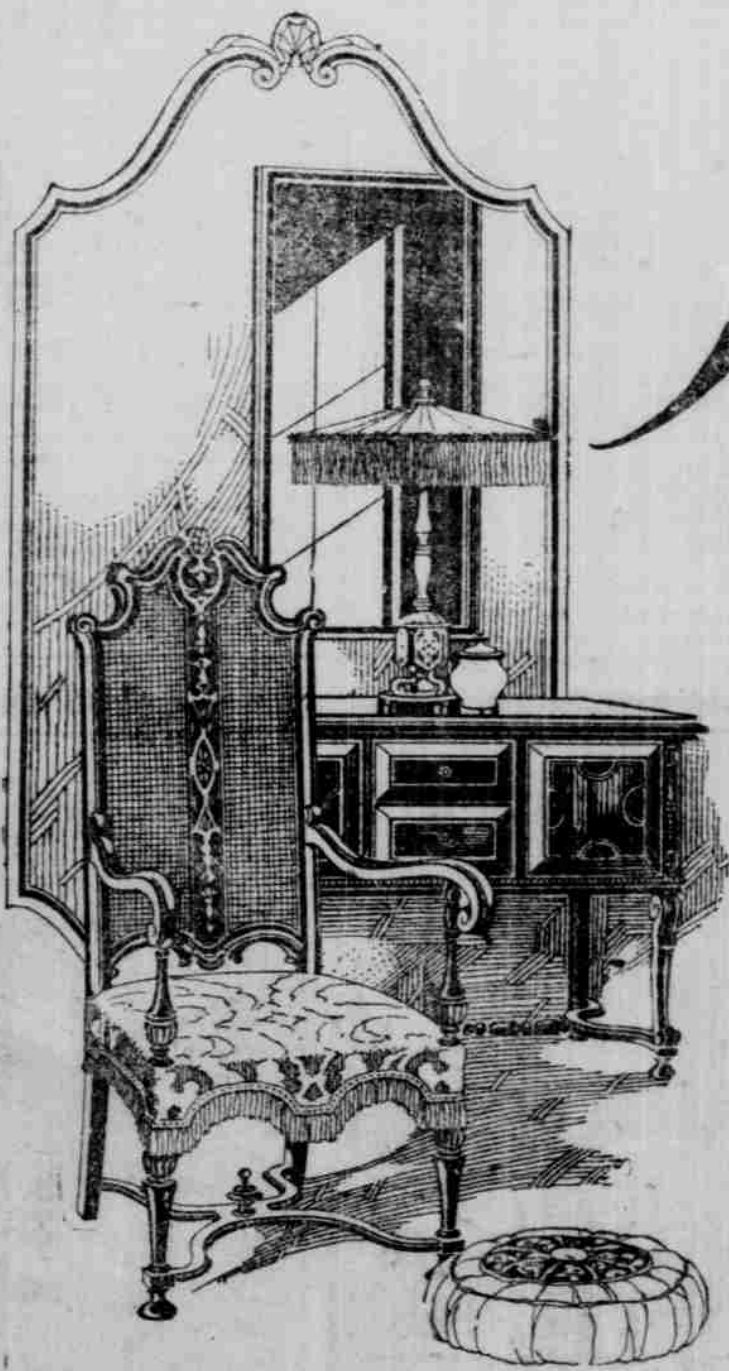

8 Judge Lyman issued an order finding Johnson guilty of contempt of court and ordered that he purge himself by appearing and paying the back amount of alimony due his former wife, Ellen Johnson, and $25 court fees. Mrs.

Johnson was granted a decree of divorce in 1919, and he was ordered to pay her $40 a month for the support of their child after its birth. This Johnson is alleged to have failed to do.

MAY REGISTER—Beginning next Tuesday morning, Sept. 14, all voters who have not registered as yet may register by calling at the office of the county recorder, Miss Edith Jacobs said yesterday. The registration for the general election on Nov. 2 will close on Oct. 13 and all who have not registered before the primaries or during the period between Sept. 14 and Oct. 15, will be unable to vote at the general election. In order that no one will lose their vote, all voters who have not registered are urged to do so at once. Alaska has only one representative in congress, and he has no vote.

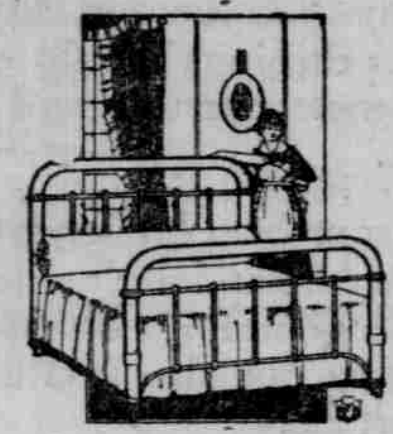

A Charming Creation of The Queen Anne Period In American Walnut

Preferred because of its natural lines of graceful beauty, the Queen Anne period continues to be the one popular style that is selected by all those of discriminating taste. Note the unusual beauty of the dining suite illustrated above.

Made of the choicest American walnut, carefully selected for its beauty of grain and fine texture, this suite will add an atmosphere of dignity and charm to any dining room. It is moderately priced.

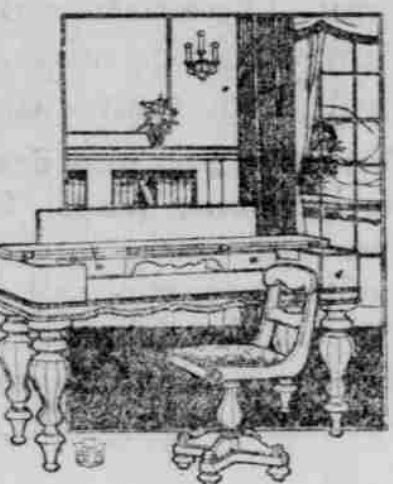

In Vernis Martin Ivory or White Enamel

You may have your choice of either finish. A substantially designed steel bed that will give many years of real service, that will match practically any type of furniture and one we can thoroughly recommend.

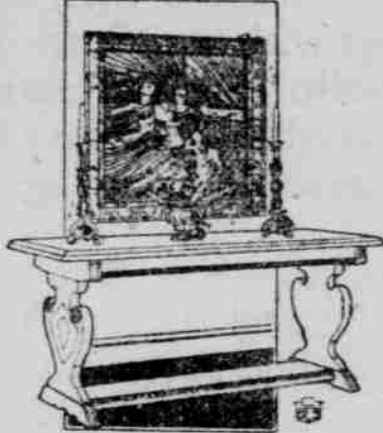

Buffets in Period Styles

The beautiful William and Mary buffet shown to the right is but one of the many period styles you will find on display here. Practically all of these were taken from period dining suites and are unusually fine values for the money. The buffet illustrated is in Jacobean oak.

The Spinnet Desk Combines Beauty And Utility

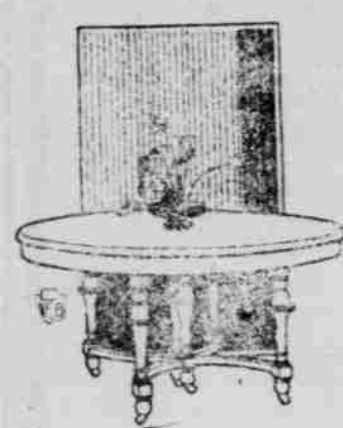

This distinctive spinnet desk massively built and finished in rich mahogany is a furniture creation that appeals to the discriminative buyer. We invite your inspection.

Davenport Table

Not many years ago davenport tables were practically unknown in the ordinary home. But today with the wealth of beautiful designs at moderate prices you will find them in discriminating homes everywhere. They add that final touch of distinction that makes a living room unusual.

Dining Tables

No matter what period you desire, what wood or finish you prefer, you will be sure to find it here priced at a saving. The William and Mary table shown to the right is but one of the variety of different styles represented in our large stock at a reasonable price.

HOME OUTFITTERS

FORD LEVY CO. INC.
116-118 WEST ADAMS STREET

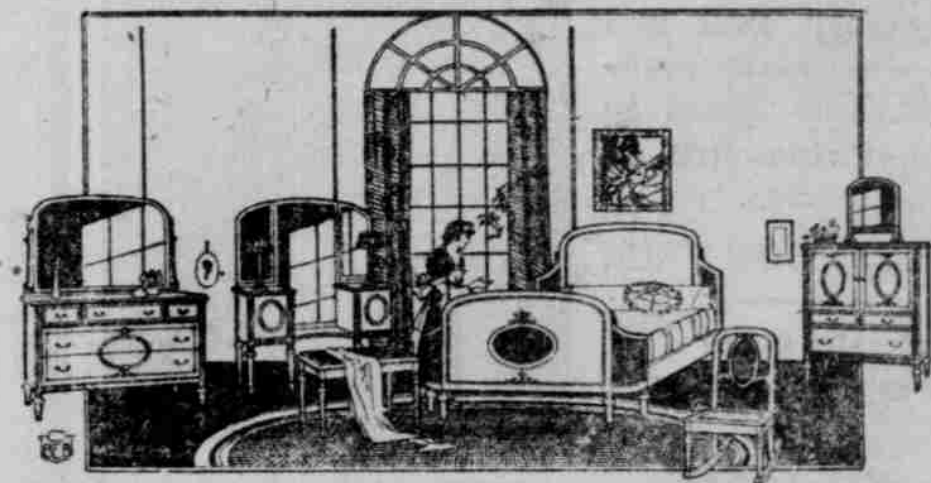

Our New Location

Our New Location

Furniture of Character

Have you ever stopped to consider just what it is that makes some homes so much more attractive and inviting than others? Upon separating all the different factors that create an atmosphere of good taste and refinement, you will find that the furniture plays a very large and important part. Furniture that is expensive is not necessary. In fact, moderate priced furniture properly designed and arranged, so the various period styles harmonize properly, will change the character of a room or an entire home. It is by providing such furniture and giving proper advice and intelligent suggestions in its selection that this store has attained its present dominant position. Discriminating persons in the entire community today look to us for the newest styles in furniture. They know that character is inbuilt, quality assured and our prices moderate. We invite your inspection.

Period Chamber Suites Distinguished by Their Unusual Beauty

No longer is the bed room a place where any type of furniture will do. The modern bedroom reflects the personality of its owner just as intimately as any other room in the home. You are certain to find exactly the type of furniture you desire in our large display of new period styles.

Perhaps you are looking for a dainty suite in ivory or Indian grey. You may prefer the dark rich beauty of a mahogany four post bed, or the charm of American walnut. You will find them all in our great display of bedroom furniture, priced moderately.

Chairs and Rockers

Where is there a home but would be made more attractive by the addition of one of these odd chairs or rockers. An infinite variety of different styles from which to choose in walnut, mahogany and oak, some upholstered in beautiful tapestry, others in velvet and mohair.

A Special Display Of Dressers

If you are planning on buying a dresser later in the season, we know it would be to your advantage to make your selection now. Our entire stock of odd dressers in ivory, American walnut and mahogany are priced right for quick sale. The dresser illustrated is a typical example in beautiful antique ivory finish.

Consider the Acorn

This business, like the acorn, started years ago in a very small way. Taking root in the fertile soil of public confidence, it has risen to its present dominating position.

BH GIBBS
HCGIBBS
GIBBS & GIBBS, LAWYERS
PHYSICIANS BUILDING
PHOENIX, ARIZ.
PRACTICE BEFORE ALL COURTS
SPECIALIZE STATE & FEDERAL LANDS